

Terms & Conditions for use of website

1. Purpose of this document

- 1.1. The Save our Shropshire CIO (SOS CIO) is a charitable incorporated organisation, dedicated to ensuring that the people in Shropshire meet the target of net zero emissions by 2030.
- 1.2. This document sets out the Terms and Conditions which apply to the use of this website, by anyone who visits it. The intent of the website is to provide users with further information about SOS CIO, and further educational information about the Climate Emergency, its impact, and the actions which members and others can take.

2. Definitions

- 2.1. SOS are referred to as "We" below and in entering our Site you as a user ("You") are accepting our terms and conditions outlined below.
- 2.2. The SOS trademarks and logos ("the Trademarks") used and displayed on this Site are registered trademarks of SOS in the UK and other countries, and may not be used without the prior written consent of the Trademark owner.

3. Using the SOS website

- 3.1. The SOS website is maintained for your personal use and viewing. The access and use of the website featuring these terms and conditions constitutes your acceptance of these terms and conditions. They take effect from the date on which you first use this website.
- 3.2. You agree to use this site only for lawful purposes, and in a manner that does not infringe the rights of, or restrict or inhibit the use and enjoyment of this site by any third party. Such restriction or inhibition includes, without limitation, conduct which is unlawful, or which may harass or cause distress or inconvenience to any person, and the transmission of obscene or offensive content or disruption of normal flow of dialogue within this site.
- 3.3. Information collected by us is used for internal review to:

-
- improve the content of the SOS website;
 - customise the content and/or layout of SOS Web.

Information collected is not shared with other organisations except where stated. See our Cookies Policy relating to the use of data on cookies, which is available when you first use the website.

- 3.4. For uses of data not related to website functionality, please read our Privacy Policy.

4. Linking to the SOS website

- 4.1. SOS welcomes and encourages other websites to link to the information that is hosted on these pages. You do not have to ask permission to link, but wording and linking graphics can be requested if necessary.

5. Links from this site

- 5.1. Links from this site do not imply any endorsement or recommendation of the information, services or products of the site to which we refer.
- 5.2. Links and frames connecting this site with other sites are for convenience only and do not mean that SOS endorses or approves those other sites, their content or the people who run them
- 5.3. It is the responsibility of the Internet user to make their own decisions about the accuracy, currency, reliability and correctness of information found at sites linked from this website.

6. Virus protection

- 6.1. We make every effort to check and test material at all stages of production. It is always wise for you to run an anti-virus program on all material downloaded from the internet.
- 6.2. We cannot accept any responsibility for any loss, disruption or damage to your data or your computer system which may occur while using material derived from this website.

7. Information at this site

The information contained and published on this website is:

- general information provided as part of SOS's role in publicising our activities and disseminating information relating to the organisation
- is subject to the usual uncertainties of research;
- is subject to change without notice;
- should never be relied on as the basis for doing or failing to do something.

8. Disclaimer

- 8.1. All information provided by SOS on its website is made available to provide immediate access for the convenience of interested persons.
- 8.2. While SOS believes the information to be reliable, human or mechanical error remains a possibility. Therefore, SOS does not guarantee the accuracy, completeness, timeliness, or correct sequencing of the information. SOS, nor any of the sources of the information shall be responsible for any errors or omissions, or for the use of or results obtained from the use of this information.

9. Copyright statement

- 9.1. By visiting the Save our Shropshire's website and using the information available, you agree to the following:

Copyright of the material, including images (unless otherwise stated), available at this site is owned by SOS. All rights reserved. Visitors to the site may use information in the ways described in this legal notice:

- you may download or print a single copy of SOS copyright material for research or personal use;
- you must not change any of the material or remove any part of any copyright notice;

- no information contained on the site may be used for commercial purposes, unless SOS has given its prior written permission.

10. Further information

If you have a request or an enquiry about reproduction and rights or for any other information, please send us an email and write to enquiry@saveourshropshire.org